

A BRIEF HISTORY OF LIBBYTOWN

Libbytown, 1859

from Nautical Chart Portland Harbor, Maine, U.S. Coast Survey

Cumberland & Oxford Canal Turning Basin, Libbytown

6/1997

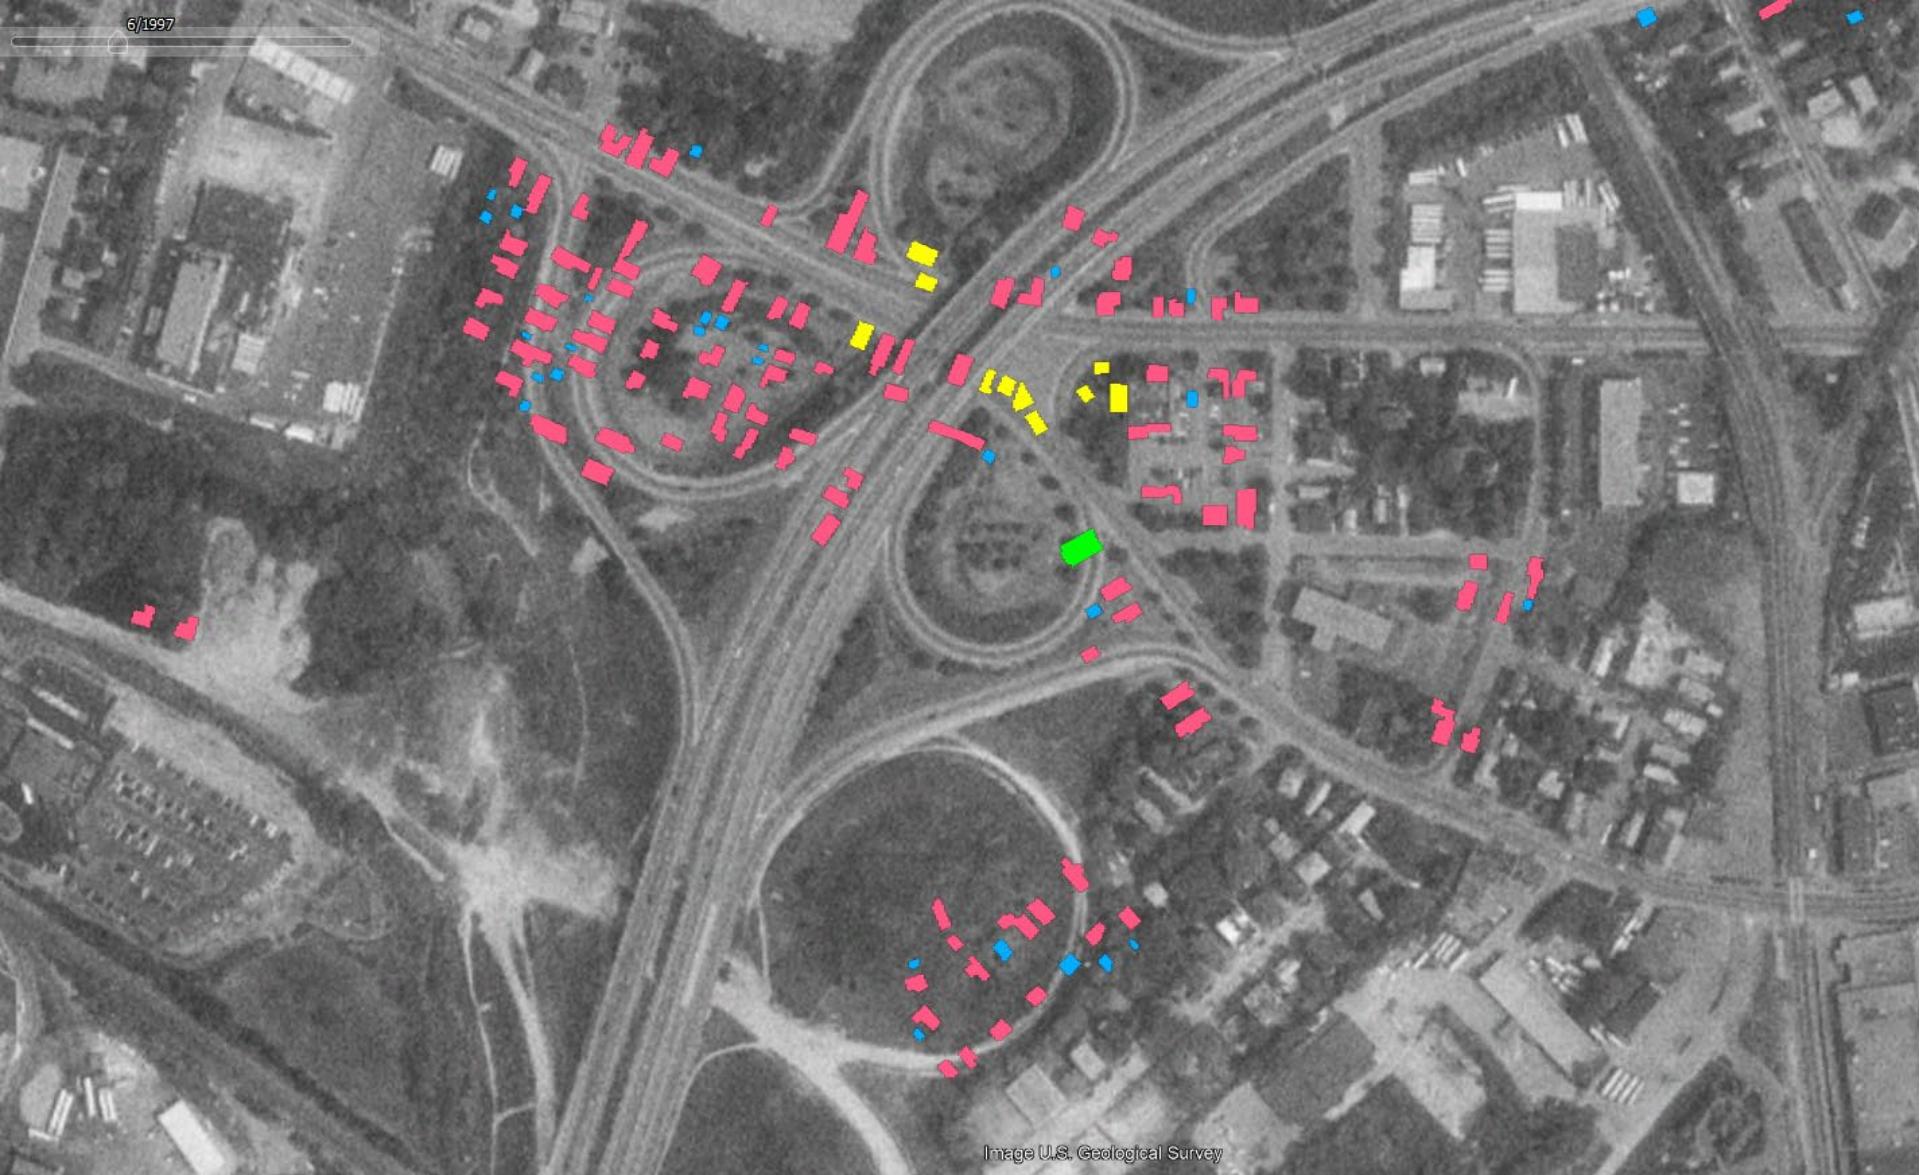

Image U.S. Geological Survey

Libbytown Demolitions

George Libby House, 1121 Congress Street, c.1840

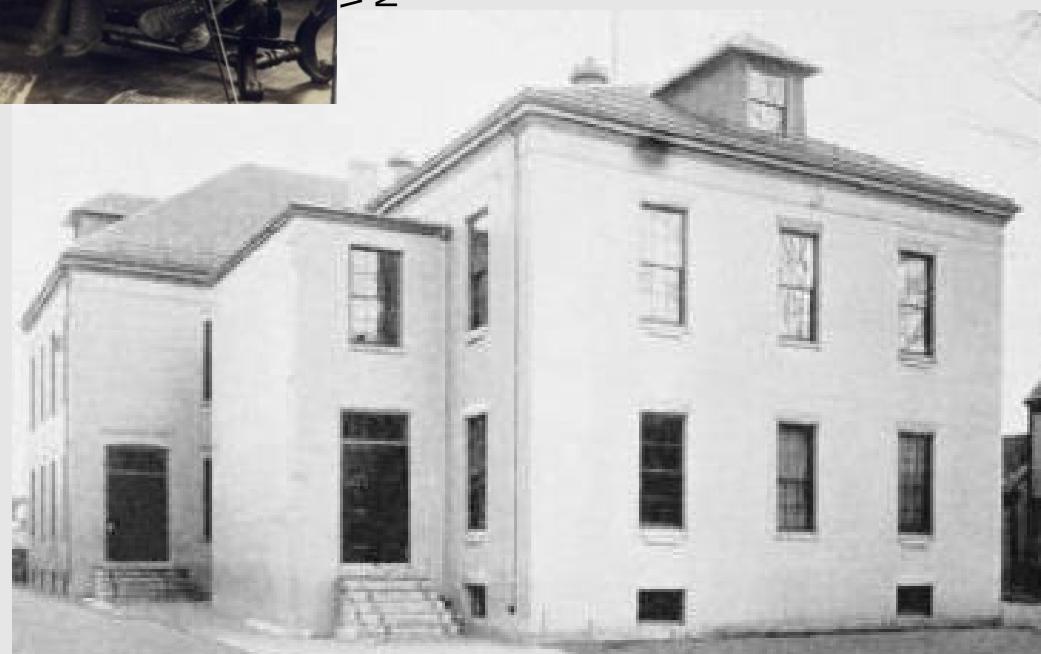

George Libby Store, 1119 Congress Street, c.1840

West School orchestra, Portland, ca. 1925
Maine Historical Society

West School, Lowell Street

West Congregational Church, 1047 Congress circa 1861, addition 1897
from Portland Public Library, Portland Press Herald Collection, 1961

West Congregational Church, 1047 Congress circa 1861, addition 1897

EVANGELINE SHOE FACTORY

JOHN CALVIN STEVENS Arch
JOHN HOWARD STEVENS

Evangeline/Holmes Stickney Shoe Shop, 15 Lowell Street

Holmes Stickney Shoe Shop, 15 Lowell Street

15 Lowell Street

Burnham Street Fire Station, 49 Burnham Street

Fire Station, 49 Burnham Street, Hose Company 6

Hose Company 6 was located in Libbytown from 1881 to 1902, when Park Avenue Station opened.

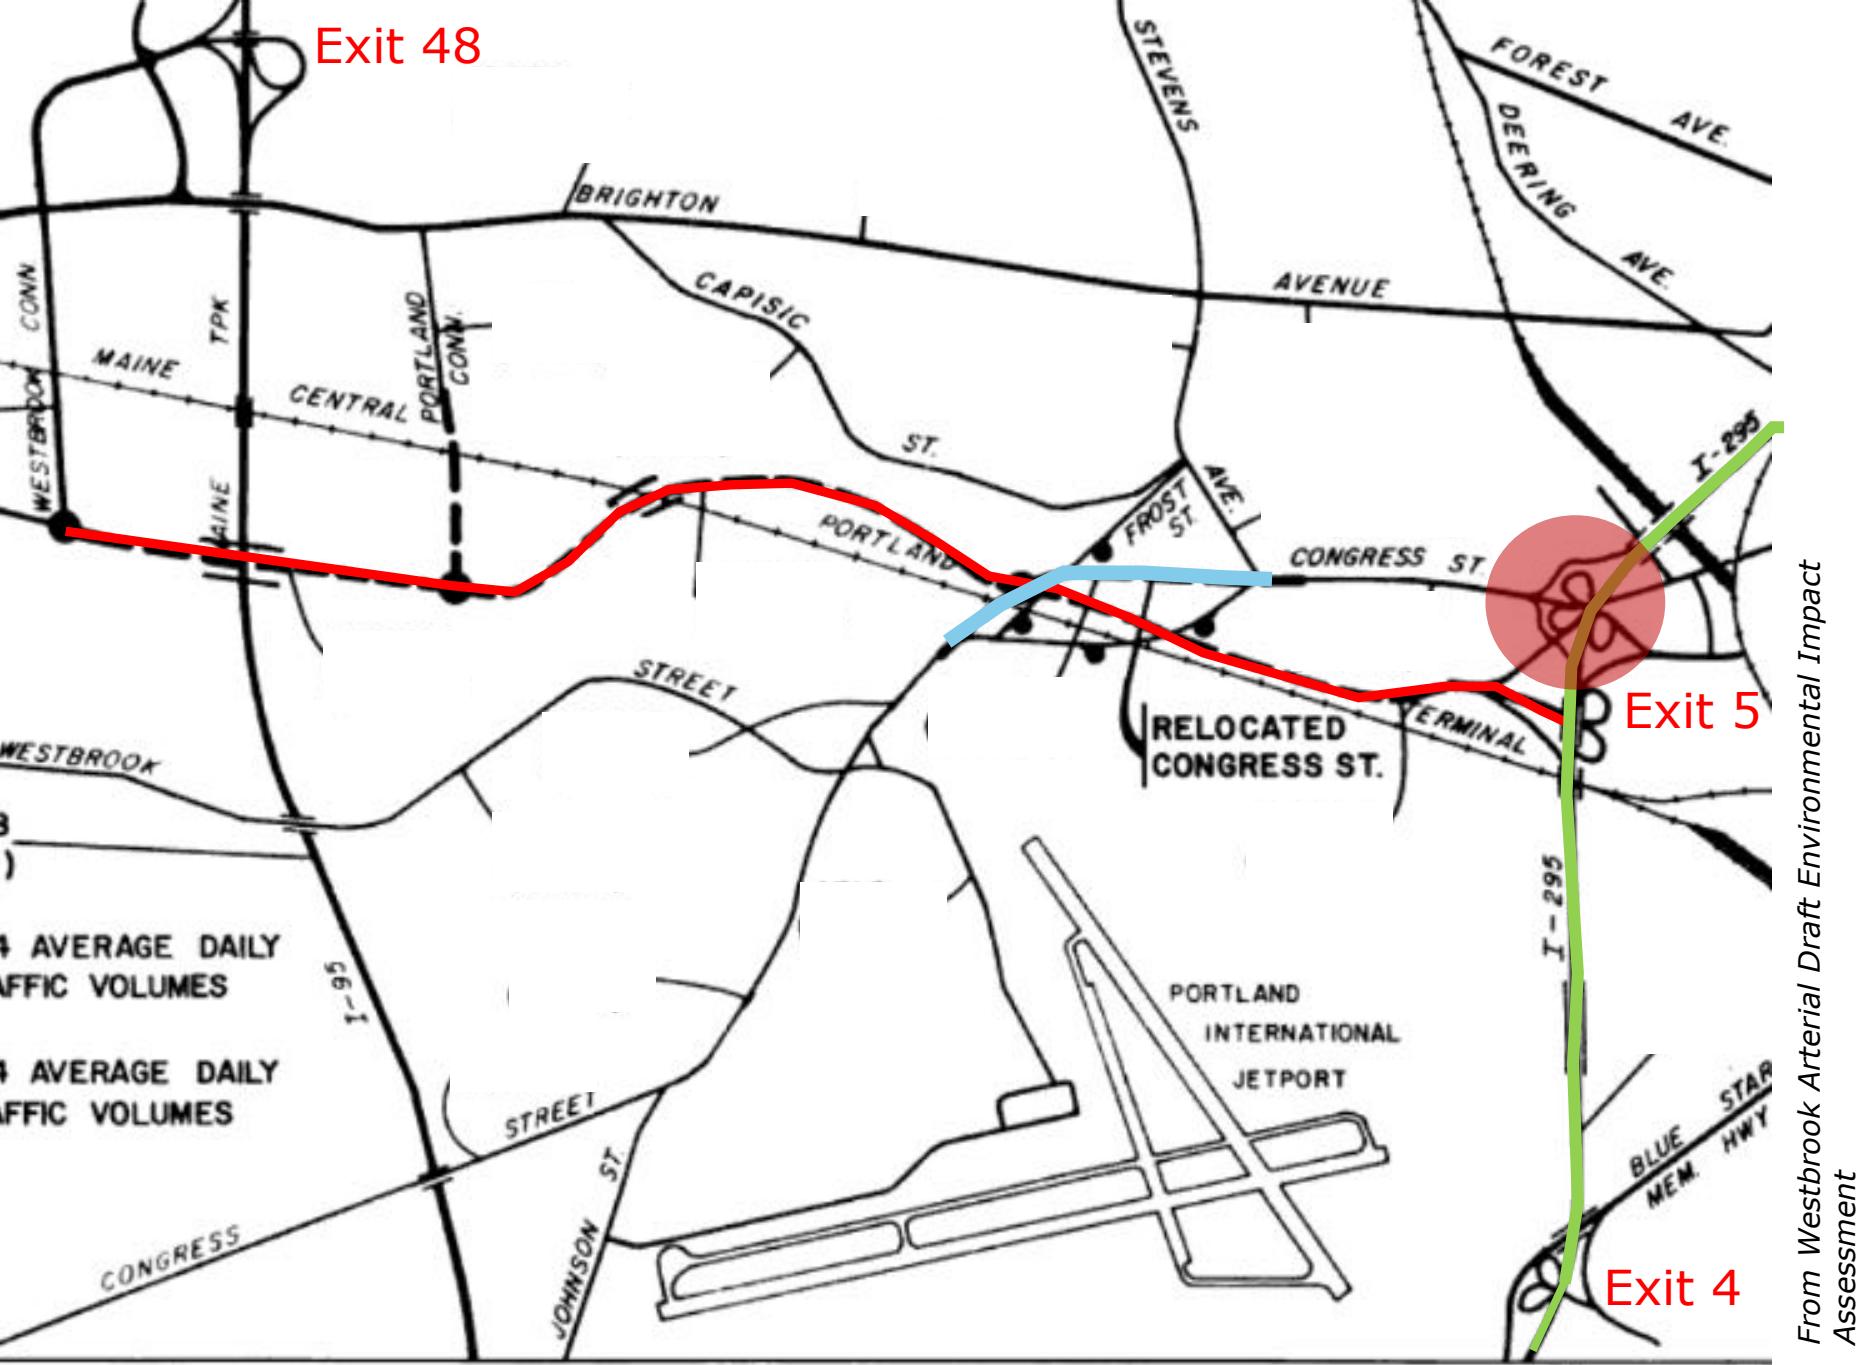

49 Burnham Street

From Westbrook Arterial Draft Environmental Impact Assessment

Proposed Westbrook Arterial I-295 Interchange

From Westbrook Arterial Draft Environmental Impact Assessment

Libbytown, 1980

from Maine Geological Survey, USDA Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Service

